Location

Midtown Atlanta is the cosmopolitan center of Atlanta, where people, business and culture converge to create an authentic live-work-play community. Midtown’s renaissance began in the 1990s and continues to evolve into a cultural icon – the Midtown Mile – as home to The High Museum of Art, the premier art museum in the Southeast; the Woodruff Arts Center, the pillar of Atlanta’s arts community; the beloved Fox Theatre, a National Historic Landmark that has been part of Midtown since 1929 and a growing list of corporate headquarters, tony shops, top-of-mind restaurants, and trendy gathering spots for the diverse populations who gather here.

Design

The signature space in the Hotel Palomar Atlanta is the welcoming living room-style lobby, which showcases an inviting fireplace, a floating 442-gallon salt water aquarium and a dramatic backlit onyx ceiling and wall. Local artwork completes the living room, and includes a piece over the fireplace by noted Atlanta artist Todd Murphy.

Guest Rooms

The stylish design carries over into the guest rooms, which feature a rich palette of taupes, charcoal grays and chocolate browns with cranberry color splashes throughout the bedding accessories and artwork. Each oversized bathroom offers sleek granite countertops and a framed full-height etched glass window separating it from the bedroom. Guests can enjoy Fuji soak tubs in the suites. Hotel Palomar's guest rooms also include city views, complimentary wireless and wired high-speed Internet access, 37-inch LCD flat-screen TVs, iHome docking stations and honor bars stocked with organic snack and beverage options.

Dining

Adjacent to the Hotel Palomar Atlanta is a yet-to-be named chef-driven restaurant serving breakfast, lunch and dinner daily. Guests and locals can take in the scene on the second-floor terrace lounge and mingle around a central bar, enjoying classic cocktails and innovative mixed libations or relaxing in cabanas or seating areas with fire pits. Guests also can take advantage of 24-hour room service.

Meetings

Hotel Palomar Atlanta's smart amenities make it easy for groups to have productive, energetic meetings. Savvy design characterizes its 10,000 square feet of flexible meeting space. The fifth-floor meeting rooms and ballroom all incorporate natural light, creating an environment certain to inspire. Each room offers state-of-the-art multimedia and audio-visual capabilities to ensure each meeting is a success and transcends expectations.

Weddings

Hotel Palomar Atlanta provides elegant accommodations for wedding parties and guests. A reception in the classic High Ballroom creates the perfect setting for an Atlanta wedding. And since Hotel Palomar hosts only one wedding at a time, the bride and groom receive the focused attention and service they deserve on their big day.

Service & Amenities

Hotel Palomar Atlanta's staff members provide genuine care for their guests with warm, Southern hospitality that makes each traveler feel comfortable and welcomed. Employees engage guests, taking cues and tapping intuition to provide a level of service that is calibrated to each individual. The hotel features Kimpton's most iconic guest experiences, from the "Guppy Love" program that provides guests with a goldfish companion upon request, to fluffy leopard and zebra print robes in each room and even pet-friendly amenities for four-legged companions. Guests can also take advantage of in-room spa services to help them relax and unwind. Daily hosted wine hour in the residential setting of the lobby offers guests a chance to enjoy the company of fellow travelers while tasting wines from around the world.

Organic complimentary morning coffee and tea service is provided daily.

Fitness

The spacious fitness center is just right for yoga, strength training or an aerobic workout. Open daily around the clock, the center features state-of-the-art cardio equipment, balance balls, yoga mats and plenty of room for stretching. Personal trainers are also available upon request.

Spa & Wellness

Guests can explore Hotel Palomar Atlanta’s Mind.Body.Spa. services to find ways to relax and rejuvenate through in-room spa treatments and On-Demand yoga, Pilates and meditation programming. Guests can enjoy massage treatments, body treatments or facials in the privacy and comfort of their own room, featuring organic and paraben-free Kerstin Florian® skin and body care products.

KimptonKids

With KimptonKids, Hotel Palomar Atlanta will be ready to provide parents with practical items that can’t be packed, such as cribs and playpens, and offer recommendations for fun and creative activities including parks and attractions in Midtown. Each child will receive a special welcome gift, and child-size animal print robes are available for loan or purchase.

Pets

Hotel Palomar Atlanta ensures pets feel as welcomed and respected as their human companions. “Fetching” pet amenities include:

- VIP (Very Important Pet) toy delivered to your room upon arrival
- Pet bowls and bed placed in room for use during your stay
- Dog leash and plastic bags for dog walks around town
- Pet sitting, grooming, walking and even pet massage services can be arranged through the hotel’s concierge

Kimpton InTouch

Kimpton’s loyalty program allows guests to say “here’s what I want,” and employees are empowered to satisfy guest preferences at the highest level. Members visiting Hotel Palomar Atlanta are granted special room preferences and personalized welcome amenities as part of the program.

Airport

Hotel Palomar Atlanta is less than 15 miles from Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, the world’s busiest airport and home to Delta Airlines. It’s a short ride via rental car or taxi (average cost is $32). Public transportation is a short walk from the hotel and connects directly to the airport terminal.
